Bachelor in General Nursing 2023

General Information

Enga College of Nursing is an affiliated institution with Pacific Adventist University. The College runs a four year Bachelor Nursing program and accepts students from all parts of the country. Enga CoN is dedicated to provide quality education within a Christian context. Demonstrating competent, and safe nursing practice required of a nurse who works collaborate with other health professionals promoting team work. ECoN is committed to developing student nurses to be competent, dedicated, and caring Christian nurses applying knowledge and skills acquired to change the urban and rural health settings in PNG.

We also expects students to be responsible for their own learning and accountable behaviour.

We also trust that students will develop increasing maturity, in personal, interpersonal and spiritual aspects of their life and will contribute to the Christian ethics of the institution.

The institution is situated within the re-established Sopas hospital grounds and hosts more than 100 general nurse students. Each group of nurses have their own classrooms, which are used for lectures and private study.

It is a National Government institution with Enga Provincial Government as its primary state holder. Enga College of Nursing also fosters Seventh Day Adventist principles and student activities are based on a Christian way of life with spiritual enrichment thus expected to be willing to build up a Christian personality and community.

Enga College of Nursing welcomes qualified candidates from all over Papua New Guinea regardless of race, religion, and colour and gender status. ECoN accepts candidates depending on the evidence of good character, academic capability and a willingness to respect the faith, beliefs, mission and lifestyle of the Seventh Day Adventist.

The SDA Sabbath is observed from sunset Friday evening to sunset Saturday evening, which students are expected to respect the Sabbath hours and refrain from activities that would interfere with personal and organised worship programme during this period.
